

HyperTransport Consortium Membership Benefits	Promoter	Contributor	Adopter	Academic (1)
Technology Licensing / HyperTransport Patents
Royalty-free licensing rights to HyperTransport technology and trademarks	■	■	■	Non-Commercial
Right to draw from entire HyperTransport Consortium's patent pool	■	■	■	■
Executive Committee
Membership to HTC's Executive Committee (Decision-making power on HTC's top technology, business and finance activities)	■
Technology
Extended, one-on-one technical training	■
Participation to HTC's Technical Working Group activities	■	■
Advanced visibility/information on HTC's developments and plans	■	■
Basic technical training (web seminars, HTC Developer Conference)	■	■
Access to extended technology documentation and guidelines (website)	■	■
Access to basic technology documentation and guidelines (website)	■	■	■	■
Periodic HyperTransport technology updates	■	■	■	■
Marketing / Member Products Promotion
Participation to HTC's Marketing Working Group activities	■	■
Advanced visibility on HTC's marketing activities & plans	■	■
Member products endorsement by HTC at/on:
Target customers	■
Public events	■	■
Press releases	■	■
Media articles	■	■
Member products promotion by HTC at industry and media events	■	■
Member participation to HTC's:
Press releases	■	■
Media articles	■	■
Booth at public events	■	■
Member and member's products promotion on Consortium web portal - web page space allocation, products and member website cross-linking, etc.	Maximum	Extended	Basic
Periodic Consortium business updates	■	■	■	■
Yearly Membership Fee (no product royalties)	$40,000	$15,000	$5,000	$0

(1) Granted exclusively to non-commercial organizations - i.e. academic institutions, government organizations, consortiums.
Academic Consortium membership is not granted to individuals.